2. Reason for revision to dividend forecasts

The Company considers returning profits to shareholders as one of its top management priorities. Regarding dividends, it aims to enhance profit returns to shareholders and improve capital efficiency, targeting a dividend payout ratio of approximately 30%. To this end, the Company adopts a progressive dividend policy, increasing dividends in line with medium- to long-term profit growth, based on an annual dividend of 70 yen per share.

In accordance with the aforementioned policy, the Company has revised its year-end dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025 to 55 yen per share, an increase of 10 yen from the initial forecast of 45 yen per share, taking into account the trends in the Company’s financial results, future business development, and other factors. Accordingly, the annual dividend forecast for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025 is expected to be 100 yen per share.
